Ms. Holbrook informed Staff Senate that the full HLC report could be viewed at any time by going to www.hsu.edu/hlc. Ms. Holbrook stated that the full HLC report was sent to 6 reviewers from other universities on December 21, 2011, allowing them time to study the report, make notes, check references and prepare questions for the actual visit. Ms. Holbrook presented a slide show, detailing a breakdown of Henderson’s Mission Statement. Ms. Holbrook stated that, during the visit, there will be 2 main things that Henderson faculty, staff and students will be expected to have an understanding of: 1. Henderson’s mission statement and 2. The mission statement of each department on campus. Ms.
Holbrook asked that all supervisors on campus print out and distribute the departmental mission statements to all employees in their area. She also suggested that everyone on campus become familiar with the HLC report in case they are stopped and asked questions when the committee is on campus. Ms. Holbrook passed out sample questions to all Staff Senators that the HLC committee might ask. Dan Mabery encouraged everyone to pass along the information presented by Ms. Holbrook to others in their departments.

Guest Flora Weeks, Secretary to the Board of Trustees, reported to Staff Senate on the progress made by the Presidential Search Committee. Ms. Weeks said that an updated timeline on the Presidential Search would be online by Friday, January 13, 2012. Ms. Weeks said that the committee met last Friday, January 6, 2012 and will meet again this Friday, January 13, 2012 to complete the work to identify all semi-finalists for the position. Ms. Weeks stated that 2 weeks after the semi-finalists have been selected they will meet with the Presidential Search Committee, where the list will be narrowed down to 3-5 names. These names will be submitted to the Board of Trustees as finalists. The Board of Trustees will meet and decide to accept all or part of the committee’s recommendations. Once the finalists are determined on-campus forums will be held with faculty, staff and students. The Board will use the evaluation results from the forums to make their final decision. Dan Mabery thanked Ms. Weeks and the Committee for taking the time to share with Staff Senate and providing us with up-to-date information.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Classes begin next week, Wednesday, January 18, 2012, with registration on Tuesday, January 17, 2012. Randy McCauley asked if Staff Senate could do the “Ask Me” project again. During discussion Martha Bryant brought up that there will not be as many new freshmen on campus as there were in the for the fall semester. It was suggested that instead of having people all over campus giving directions to lost students, we place someone in Womack Hall, since several offices had moved and new signage had not been hung yet. Dan asked for a commitment from Staff Senate to participate in the “Ask Me” project for the spring. Dan said that he would put together a schedule and send it out for people to sign up for times to help. Dan also said that he would get the “Ask Me” buttons from Deborah and pass them out to those who could help out.

The MLK committee asked if Staff Senate would nominate 3 members to attend the prayer breakfast that was to be held Wednesday, January 18, 2012 beginning at 6:45am. Dr. Drew Smith and Yvette Bragg agreed to attend the breakfast as Staff Senate representatives. Alan Ford stated that he would ask Jennifer Wright, Admission Counselor, to attend the event as the third representative of the Staff.

Dan Mabery passed out a list of Staff Senate Committees and asked that everyone look over the list and think about what committee(s) they would like to serve on for the upcoming year. Dan stated that he would have senators sign up for committees at the meeting next month.

Alan Ford asked that if staff members had concerns that needed to be brought to the attention of the Presidential Search committee they could be brought to him and he would pass them along.

On motion by Martha Bryant, seconded by Randy McCauley the meeting was adjourned.

Respectfully Submitted,

Amanda Baker
