Henderson Heartbeat

Introducing the “Henderson Heartbeat”

Welcome to the first edition of the “Henderson Heartbeat,” a new biweekly electronic newsletter for faculty and staff. The goal of this newsletter is to share important news—including events and staffing updates—and improve overall communication. Submit your news tips to press@hsu.edu.

ASU System Board Approves No Tuition Increase at Henderson for FY24

The ASU System Board of Trustees met June 8 and approved no tuition increase for Henderson for the 2023-2024 academic year. HSU’s FY24 budget includes $33,235,070 for educational and general operations and $8,252,776 for auxiliary operations. Other approvals include elimination of the broadcast and publication fees and authorization to proceed with additional grant-funded renovations at the Caddo Center.

HSU Band Camp Returns June 13-17 and June 20-24

Henderson Foundation is partnering with Henderson's Music Department to relaunch HSU Band Camp for Summer 2023. Senior Band Camp is June 13-17, and Junior Band Camp is June 20-24. Starbucks plans limited operating hours during HSU Band Camp.

Henderson Planetarium Plans Return to Programming for Fall 2023

The Henderson Planetarium, in the Reynolds Science Building, will soon announce a slate of fall programming for school groups. Additional plans are in progress with community groups for educational programming and events associated with the solar eclipse on April 8, 2024.

ANCRC Awards Grants for Caddo Center, Barkman House Renovations

The Arkansas Natural and Cultural Resources Council has awarded $1.4 million and $850,000 grants, respectively, for renovations at the Caddo Center and Barkman House. The Caddo Center project is a continuation of renovations to create a one-stop location for admissions, financial aid, housing, and advising. Barkman House includes offices for alumni, development, marketing, and the foundation. Work will take place during the 2023-2024 academic year.
